Since 1959, BCI has been a catalyst for change, empowering adults with disabilities by providing innovative and meaningful employment opportunities. Our Employment Continuum meets individuals where they are today and helps them envision where they can go tomorrow—honoring the unique paths each person takes along the way. Partnering with BCI means more than business—it’s a commitment to advocating for inclusion and empowering people with disabilities in our community.

Together, we can make a lasting impact.

We are now proud to be an employment partner, aligned with BCI’s mission. This collaboration perfectly complements our own values, helping us find hardworking, passionate individuals with a team-player mindset and a positive attitude—people who help advance our culture every day.” — George Schoedinger, VP Logistics Operations, World Wide Technology, Edwardsville*
